

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The state of South Dakota and the state of Washington are celebrating 1989 as their centennial year; and,

WHEREAS, Our two states have numerous cultural and economic ties; and,

WHEREAS, The Pacific Northwest is a primary source of lumber and forest products for our state, our region, our nation, and the world; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota and our region are making great strides in business and economic development, and our usage of forest products is increasing for homes, business, and agriculture; and,

WHEREAS, A group of 35 lumbermen involved in the growth and development for our region are embarking on an educational and trade mission to the Pacific Northwest:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 6 through 12, 1989, as in South Dakota to observe the significance of lumber and forest products to the growth and development of our region and to promote trade and economic exchange of products and ideas between our two states.

1989 WEST COAST MILL TRIP WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Fourth Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
